T1 Comment

Mateo's friendly attitude makes him a very special member of our class. He is an eager and active participant in the class community. He often leads discussions and helps his peers to see things from a new and different perspective. Mateo's love for reading has helped him in language arts, where Mateo reads well at the expected reading level for fourth grade. He is able to clearly express himself in writing. He also has a strong mathematical sense that helps him to grasp new concepts quickly. Mateo has the potential to do even better work but he must stay on task, concentrate, and use his time wisely. Mateo is off to a good start in fourth grade!
